

Broward Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers Hosts Broward State Attorney Debate

Tuesday, July 10, 2012 • 5:00 p.m.

Broward County Main Library Auditorium

100 S. Andrews Avenue, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33301

The three candidates running for State Attorney in Broward County—Mike Satz (I) (D), Chris Mancini (D), and Jim Lewis (R)—will participate in a debate similar to the ones conducted for Presidential elections. Ken Hassett, President of the BACDL, will serve as the moderator. The public is invited to attend the debate, which serves to inform citizens about the policies that these candidates would pursue in a very important position, Broward County State Attorney. The questions that will be asked were submitted by the various Bar Associations in Broward County and vetted via committee. There will be no questions from the floor.

A Primary Election will be held on August 14, 2012, between Mr. Satz & Mr. Mancini. The winner will face Mr. Lewis in the General Election on November 6, 2012.

Attend the debate for FREE and learn more about the candidates. Refreshments and hors d'ouvres will be provided before the debate.
